LONDON, June 12.—The Marquis of Salisbury has been summoned by the queen to Balmoral, and he left last night secretly for that place.

The immense building occupied by the International Inventors' exhibition is on fire and burning furiously. It is feared that most of the inventions in the exhibition will be totally destroyed.

The Parnellite members of parliament have been conferring with leading conservatives with regard to the government of Ireland. Mr. Parnell and his followers strongly urge the Tories to adopt a home rule measure for Ireland.

GLADSTONE'S RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

LONDON, June 12.—The queen has accepted the resignation of the Gladstone ministry and has summoned the Earl of Salisbury to form a new cabinet.

GLADSTONE ANNOUNCES IT.

LONDON, June 12.—Gladstone announced in the house of Commons this afternoon that he had resigned his office, that the queen has accepted his resignation, and that her majesty has informed him that she had summoned the marquis of Salisbury, leader of opposition in the house of lords to Balmoral, for the purpose of entrusting him with the formation of a new ministry.

The Marquis of Salisbury arrived at Balmoral at 4 this afternoon.

In the house of lords, Lord Granville announced that Gladstone had extended to the queen the resignation of himself and the entire cabinet. He hoped the house would abandon all ordinary business.

THE QUEEN.

LONDON, June 12.—The queen is expected to arrive Tuesday next.

ONLY A ERROR.

LONDON, June 12.—It was reported today in certain circles that the Marquis of Salisbury, after consultation with the conservative leaders, had decided to advise that efforts be made to induce

Gladstone to reconsider his resolve to re-

The general ignorance and uncertainty regarding the outcome of the government crisis is ludicrous. The Daily News and Times ever in leading editorials this morning that the Marquis of Salisbury departed for Bal-more last evening in response to a summons from the queen. The Daily Telegraph states that it caused a personal inquiry to be made at his residence late last night and was assured that the marquis was in bed.

A royal courier arrived in London this afternoon, bringing the queen's reply to Mr. Gladstone's letter. It is understood that the reply contained an imperative summons for Mr. Gladstone's attendance at Balmoral, and the premier left for Scotland by the next train.

PARIS, June 11.—The political crisis in British affairs strengthens the belief that is generally entertained here, that the international Suez canal commission will dissolve without reaching any decision on clause ten.

SPRINGFIELD, Me., June 12.—Trouble over the advocacy of the prohibitory law, culminated last night in the organization of a mob, armed with revolvers and stones, and attacks upon a number of houses in which the windows were smashed and other damage done. The final effort of the mob was made against the office of the Advertiser.

The editor sleeps in the office. A perfect fusillade was kept up and bullets rained in torrents. The editor's only offense was a publication without comment of the liquor trials. He escaped injury. The raiders then dispersed.

Capt. Geo. E. Belknap, now in New York, engaged in testing the new despatch boat, Dolphin, that yesterday's trial was entirely valueless, as the test desired was for the purpose of proving the boat's ability to stand heavy sea.

THE CITY.

The postmaster at Albion has resigned.

The Wabash shops will be closed to-morrow.

Jacob Pierr was able to be out to-day and was at his store.

Wabash train No. 2 was forty-five minutes late this morning.

The pay car of the Grand Rapids road will be here to-morrow.

Mrs. B. T. Martin, of Bluffton, is visiting the family of Mr. Alex. Staub.

Dr. Van Buskirk has moved into his new house, on South Calhoun street.

The Wabash company to-day ceased to operate the Toledo, Peoria and Western road.

Miss Alice Habecker, teacher in the Hoagland school, will spend her vacation in Lancaster, Pa.

Col. C. A. Zollinger is at Upper Sandusky, Ohio. He will go to Washington before returning home.

A watch of the late Right Rev. Father Benoit will be put up and lotteried off at the Library hall to-night.

The choir of Zion's Lutheran church ran an excursion to Rome City to-day. A large crowd went with them.

The sequester is killed and everywhere the posters from THE SENTINEL press are complimented for their beauty.

Mrs. M. B. V. Spencer, entertained a party of friends pleasantly last evening and spread a nice luncheon for her guests.

A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the temperance meeting at temperance headquarters this evening.

Miss Agnes Montgomery, of West Vernon, Ohio, is the guest of her friend, Mrs. W. T. Parry, of West Wayne street.

A Fort Wayne married man yesterday made a match at Rome City. His wife interfered and there was war for a time. This was a battle not on the program.

James J. Matlock, an express messenger who was badly hurt on the Edinburgville branch of the Wabash, last January, has sued the company for $30,000 damages.

For the fourth of July the Wabash will sell tickets to points within 150 miles at one fare for the round trip. Tickets will be sold July 3 and 4, good to return until the 6th.

The County Superintendents' association will hold its annual meeting at Plymouth church, Indianapolis, Monday and Tuesday, June 29 and 30. Superintendent Felt will attend the meeting.

Judge Mitchell, of the supreme court, yesterday reversed the decision of the Allen superior court in the case of John Lechner vs. Veronica Vogel. In the case of Wm. D. Baker vs. Noah Clem the petition for rehearing was overruled.

The keeper of the island park at Rome City ordered two Fort Wayne boys off the grounds yesterday for trespassing. The boys did not go and one of them pulled a revolver on the keeper, who drew a knife on the kid and slashed him across the face.

City Clerk Rockhill has issued building permits, as follows: To George Burdiger to construct two one-story frame houses on lot 63, Hanna's addition, to cost $1,500, and to W. H. Dryer to erect two one-story frame houses in Rockhill's second addition, to cost $200 each.

Engineer John P. Sheehan, of the Pittsburg, and daughter, and Mrs. William Ross, of Dayton, O., brother-in-law and sister respectively of the late Mrs. W. P. Sheehan, attended the funeral yesterday. Engineer John Sheehan is the oldest man in the service of the company.

The Lafayette Courier says: "The Fort Wayne SENTINEL is wrong in its surmise that the article which appeared in the Courier of last Thursday to the effect that Bishop Dwenger would probably be appointed coadjutor of Arch Bishop Kendrick, of St. Louis, emanated from Father Walters. That gentleman did not furnish the information, and knew nothing about it until he read it in the personal column of the Courier."

Policeman Kramer will report for duty to-night.

Master Mechanic Morris is inspecting this division of the Wabash road.

The concert at the Tivoli garden next Sunday will be a grand thing. Prof. Immes is the principal attraction.

A freight car broke down near Valparaiso, on the Pittsburg, this morning, delaying train No. 4 two hours and a half.

Dr. Adams, of Maumee township, who was injured in a runaway accident some weeks ago, was able to come to the city to-day.

Sam Barr shipped a fine keg of Bass from Pleasant Lake to this city yesterday. The fish were for John P. Hance and Al. Emerson.

Cincinnati people have sued Hon. Peter Kiser, in Justice Ryan's court, to collect a bill. Uncle Peter called the case this afternoon and was his own lawyer.

The post graduating class of the high school will be tendered a reception and banquet at the residence of Casper B. Neireiter, at 228 West Washington street this evening.

The credentials of Dr. T. J. Dills, as chief of the local board of pension examiners, are en route here from Washington. Dr. Dills' associates will be a democrat and a republican.

The marshals locked up a fellow named Cunningham yesterday and Mayor Muhler gave the fellow twenty-five days in jail for resisting the officers and embezzling too much whisky.

The Huntington News says: "Henry Steinbrenner was taken to Bluffton yesterday by Sheriff Bowman. Should his case be nolle prosequi, he will be again arrested upon another charge."

Mrs. Casper Raw, of East Washington street, accidentally fell into a cistern last night and since her rescue she has been partially insane. Dr. G. T. Bruebach hopes to restore her reason.

There was a neighborhood row near Williamsport the other day and the quarrel is now in Justice Ryan's court. Mr. Lopez is defendant to the charges of assault and battery and stabbing cows.

Poundmaster Wenker captured a dozen cows to-day, despite the threats of an army of women who want his scalp. It costs $1.50 to get a cow out of the jug. If locked up more than one day it costs more.

The supreme court has refused to grant Charlotte Epp, the Huntington county murderess, a new trial. She was convicted of poisoning her husband in 1883, and sentenced to life imprisonment.

Mayor Muhler yesterday ordered Marshal Meyer to shoot Fred Beach's Newfoundland dog, for biting Louis Martin, a clerk at the Fruit House. The marshal discovered the dog had been shipped into Ohio.

The Huntington Herald says: "Mrs. J. W. Younger, of Fort Wayne, while visiting her parents near this city, was taken suddenly ill and the doctor came down Tuesday evening and accompanied her home the next day."

C. J. Foster, a former SENTINEL typo, is in the city. Mr. Foster was a delegate to the international union from the St. Louis branch, and is employed on the St. Louis Globe-Democrat with O. T. Thomas and Ed Bauer.

The indications for the lower lake region, as reported by the weather bureau at Washington to THE SENTINEL, are as follows: Fair weather, followed in western portion by local rains; warmer southerly winds, falling barometer.

Trustees of Hanover college to Baylis Swift, lot 33 McLaughlin's addition; Rieva Swinney to Bernard Kline, an acre for $300; Fred W. Braunmeyer to Clara H. Braunmeyer, lot 5 Boud's addition, are the city real estate transfers.

The Burgess estate will be sold to-morrow to satisfy a $48,000 mortgage held by Messrs. Paul and Bash, backed by a syndicate of capitalists, who have Mr. Burgess' first option to redeem in the pockets, so that small creditors can whistle for their money.

Mayor Muhler and Police Commissioners Doehman, Scheid, Kramer and Ely met last night and elected Wm. Kramer, of the Eighth ward, to fill the vacancy on the police force. Mr. Kramer has been a member in the Bass foundry and is a brother of Police Commissioner Kramer.

The Pennsylvania railroad has issued its annual Summer Excursion Route book, for 1885, containing over one thousand different excursion routes and including all the principal eastern summer resorts and prominent places of interest in the east. Persons contemplating a summer trip can determine the questions of where to go, how to go, and rates very easily by a perusal of this book.

The excursion of the veterans to Rome City yesterday was one of the most enjoyable of the season. A large number of the jolly boys in blue, in their neat uniforms, accompanied the excursion and in the afternoon participated in a sham battle. The funny tribe seemed to feel that the old soldiers were out, by the way in which they hit, and many fine stunts were brought away as trophies. The excursion was a success financially.

The Big Damage Suits.

There was great sport in the federal court yesterday afternoon. Drs. F. O. Hart, W. M. Denman and J. M. Runion, of West Unity, and L. L. Williams, of Fayette, Ohio, testified as to the injury sustained by Mary J. and Alfred W. Fisher in the collision on the Grand Rapids road last summer. The people are maimed for life and have never left their beds since the fatal smashup. The doctors came here to represent their ailments and did so plainly, but in stating the probable nature and location of their injuries, the Buckeye physicians were befuddled. One of them magnified the sciatic nerve as something the size of an ordinary rope, while another doctor described the nerve as half an inch wide. Local surgeons were put on the stand and everlastingly riddled the Ohio doctors, to the manifest amusement of the professional gentlemen present. The case will go to the jury this evening and the verdict will be in to-morrow. This is a very serious case and there will be a different verdict from that in the Griffin case.

Mrs. Sheehan's Funeral.

Yesterday afternoon occurred the funeral of the late Mrs. Jennie Sheehan, wife of Conductor W. P. Sheehan, of the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville road, from the family residence, No. 182 East Washington street. The attendance was very large and a long cortege of carriages followed the remains to Lindenwood. Rev. Dr. D. W. Moffat was the officiating clergyman and the pall bearers were Messrs. J. G. Noll, A. S. Durnell, F. J. Majors, Wm. Anderson, John McCreesh and Philip Tremmel. Elegant floral tributes lay upon the coffin, the offerings of the Order of Railway Conductors and personal friends, among them Mrs. J. H. Schwartz, of Richmond, Ind. Mr. Sheehan desires to extend thanks for the timely and considerate kindness of many friends in the hour of his bereavement.

Pleasant Festivals.

The tissue paper carnival at the Academy last evening was one of the pleasantest affairs of the kind ever given here. The interior of the hall was tastefully decorated, and booths and way stands were decorated with bright paper by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church. The attendance was very large and the receipts correspondingly so. Spiegels' band furnished music for the occasion, THE SENTINEL congratulates the promoters of the novel carnival.

AT LIBRARY HALL.

The second night of the festival at Library hall drew a nice crowd and the art gallery and battle of Gettysburg scenes were attractive spots. The city band was present and sent music to the sky. To-night the spacious hall will be packed. A feature of the feast is the budget, edited by Rev. J. F. Lang, W. P. Brown and managed by R. W. T. DeWald.

The Knight Templar Reception.

Fort Wayne Commandery, Knights Templar, never does things by halves, and the reception and banquet last night was one of the grandest yet tendered by Fort Wayne Sir Knights. There were fifty guests from abroad, including men eminent in the order from Indiana, Illinois, Ohio and Michigan. The temple degree was conferred on Mr. A. D. Cressler amid the most sublime and solemn surroundings. After this work the Sir Knights sat to a magnificent banquet prepared by colored Pullman car waiters sent here by Supd. C. H. Law. The table decorations were emblematic of the order, the most notable feature being a representation of the Temple open-house. The evening ran

SHUT DOWN.

A. D. Cressler Closes the Kerr Murray Machine Works and Sends Patterns to Mt. Vernon.

It is pretty near a settled fact that A. D. Cressler, manager of the Kerr Murray works, will close the shops for the summer, and let them rot entirely before he will accede to the demands of the workmen. This morning he shipped two car-loads of patterns to Mt. Vernon, Ohio, where his contracts have been sub-let to manufacturers. Mr. Cressler will retire to his farm and eventually move his works elsewhere, as he has two offers of big assistance. His about settled that the Murray shops are dead to Fort Wayne and forever closed to the strikers. THE SENTINEL regrets exceedingly that this is the outcome of the lockout, because it is an alarming loss to Fort Wayne and reduces the value of every foot of ground in the city. All of Mr. Cressler's business comes from abroad and every day added foreign capital to our wealth. This sort of business tells and is a loss of $5,000 a month to Fort Wayne.

The foremen and watchman at the Kerr Murray works were examined before the grand jury to-day and indictments are expected against the men who assaulted and intimidated the non-union workmen. On the whole the Kerr Murray strike has reached an unfortunate crisis, but it probably yet lies with the men to make matters right.

Sheldon Monroe, a young fellow, was fishing in Lake township this morning, when he thought to put a bullet through a fish and in handling the pistol it was discharged, the ball passing into the calf of his left leg. The sufferer is at the City hospital and Drs. W. H. and H. S. Myers are hunting the lead.

The county commissioners gave the contract to build an iron bridge in Jackson township to the Smith company of Toledo, for $1,350. The same company will raise the Bull Rapids bridge for $500, and repair the state line bridge in Maumee township at a cost of $1,000. Henry Paul will raise the New Haven bridge for $400. Two liquor licenses were granted.

John Monaghan, a section hand on the Nickel Plate road, was killed by a locomotive one mile this side of the Ohio state line last night. Coroner Dinnen held an inquest and brought the dead man to this city. His wife will, to-night, take the body to Boston for interment.

W. F. Geller furnished the ice cream and sherbets at the tissue paper carnival last evening.

CHEAP STORE.

Underselling Bargains.

I take the pleasure to inform my friends and customers that I have secured from the firm of H. Weiss & Co., Cincinnati, who recently burned out, the entire stock of Children's and Ladies' Hosiery, amounting to nearly 500 dozen at about 50 cents on the dollar, and which I will place on sale at the following low prices:

One lot of Misses' Hosiery, sizes 5 to 7, 5c a pair.

One lot of Misses' Hosiery, sizes 5 to 8, 8c a pair.

One lot of Misses' Hosiery, full regular made, sizes 5 to 8, 25c; worth 75c.

One lot of Misses' Hosiery, brilliant list, 35c; worth $1.

One lot of Misses' Hosiery, all silk, in black and colors, 50c a pair; worth $1.50.

Fifty dozen Ladies' full regular made, in fancy striped, black and solid colors and unbleached Balbriggans, at 25c a pair, worth 50c.

An examination of the above goods will prove them to be everything that is claimed for them, and they cannot be termed otherwise than extraordinary values.

THE FIRST CRIST.

The Grand Jury Returns Eight Indictments.

The grand jury, which has been in session since Monday, made a partial report to-day, returning eight indictments. One is against James Hartley, for horse-stealing; another is against George Shelly, for the robbery of a store at Zanesville; a third is for petit larceny, and five indictments are for misdemeanors. The officers will not give names in the cases and it is suspected they include people charged with bribery, perjury and riot. Arrests are being made on the grand jury warrants.

Trouble on the Wabash.

A reduction of the car-repair force was made on the Wabash road at Andrews, this week and five of the gang suspended. It is understood the suspension is only temporary, but as all are men employed prior to the 26th of February, it is claimed it is a violation of the agreement made between General Manager Talmage and the Executive Committee of the Knights of Labor, and an appeal to headquarters will probably be made. Division Master Car-builder Anderson, Monday, agreed to give the men suspended work at Fern, but when part of them reported to him Wednesday, he was unable to fill his promise.

A Boy Shot.

Sheldon Monroe, a young fellow, was fishing in Lake township this morning, when he thought to put a bullet through a fish and in handling the pistol it was discharged, the ball passing into the calf of his left leg. The sufferer is at the City hospital and Drs. W. H. and H. S. Myers are hunting the lead.

Will Bond, a clerk at Gumpert's grocery, is very sick.

Rev. Fathers Hartman, of Arcola, and Deunig, of Avilla, are in the city.

Wants Another Holiday.

A four-year old Pittsburg urchin asked his mother last St. Patrick's day why they never celebrated St. Jacob's day. She said that when Tommy grew old and rheumatic they would celebrate it with a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. This pacified him.

Rheumatism, Gout and Neuralgia.

It is scientifically settled that rheumatism, gout and neuralgia cannot be cured by rubbing with oils, ointments, liniments, lotions, etc.; for the reason that these diseases are caused by uric acid in the blood. The only preparation which uniformly expels this acid is Parker's Tonic. Subdues pain at once. Try it.
